- Three Diverse Roles Available
- Dynamic Sales Team
- Eastern Suburbs
- Energetic and Positive Working Environment
- Full Training

Fletchers, one of the Melbourne's leading real estate firms is looking for outstanding candidates to join our Canterbury and North Balwyn Sales teams. The successful candidate must be motivated and committed to developing a career in real estate.

The Fletchers sales team provides an exciting, challenging and fast paced environment using the latest cutting edge technology which leads to a fantastic work setting and team culture and places Fletchers as one of Melbourne's pre-eminent real estate firms.

We are seeking energetic self motivated people with a true passion for real estate and the personal desire to become the very best they can be. The roles we have available provide an introduction into real estate with the aim of learning the critical activities that drive sales success including lead generation and database management. An extensive training and personal development program will provide you with an opportunity to develop your career with Fletchers.

You must possess strong communication and organisational skills, a positive and friendly attitude, be well presented with a high customer service orientation, and the exceptional ability to relate to people from all backgrounds. Being results focused you also possess the capability to work both independently and within a close team environment to build sustainable relationships within the community.

A valid Agents Representative Certificate is essential.

The incentive for working with Fletchers is that we provide you a family company culture that will develop you to be the best person you can be. If you wish to join one of Melbourne's most established and trusted real estate sales teams please forward your cover letter and resume now.
