

Real Estate Sales Consultant

- Long Established Multi Office Agency –Victoria
- Outstanding Package and Listing Support Program
- Modern Office Environment

Fletchers, a leading Victorian real estate firm, are continually looking for outstanding salespeople to become part of their successful team.

Experienced sales people with a history of success wishing to relocate within the Eastern suburbs of Melbourne, Bellarine Peninsula and Greater Geelong, or from other locations throughout Australia are most welcome to apply on a discreet and confidential basis.

Fletchers service the municipalities of Boroondara, Whitehorse, Manningham, Stonnington and also the Bellarine Peninsula and Greater Geelong areas through its fully owned multi office network. As a result of continued impressive market share increases there is now room for you, if you:

- are an Agents Representative or fully Licensed Agent
- have a track record of success in residential real estate sales
- are a well presented professional
- conduct real estate with a repeat and referral focus thought the use of a database
- are desirous of working with an outstanding driven team of people who will help you to improve your results no matter how good they have been

Fletchers is on the top of their game; they have an outstanding team based culture, a very supportive management team, a modern technology platform to go along with their well appointed offices and an industry leading sales methodology with all of the bells and whistles needed to be “a best practice agency”.

If this opportunity is for you please call Bradley Brown, Director and CEO on 03 9836 2222 or send your CV in ASAP.